

A thriving primary school library, at one low fixed price.

Software, expert support and a curated book bundle — bundled into one simple annual subscription from Softlink, the School Library Association and Peters.

Running a school library usually means juggling three separate costs: a system to manage your books, expert advice when you need it, and a steady supply of great new titles. Mission Control brings all three together, so even the smallest primary school can offer a library worth shouting about.

THE SYSTEM

Orbit library software

- Online, cloud-hosted system — data hosted securely in the UK
- Engaging, picture-based search designed for young readers
- 3-monthly automatic reports: total loans by class, most popular resources, and frequent borrowers
- Linked to your MIS via Wonde for seamless pupil data
- Data migration included if you're moving from an existing supplier
- Online training with a qualified Softlink trainer
- Ongoing support by phone or email
- Full access to the user guide and video tutorial portal

THE SUPPORT

Advice from the SLA

- Remote guidance from the School Library Association, the UK's leading school library charity
- Support with collection development and setting up your library
- Help running reading events and engaging pupils with books
- Open to everyone building your reading culture — librarians, teachers, literacy leads, governors and volunteers

THE SUPPLY

Book bundle from Peters

- A brand-new reading-for-pleasure book bundle, supplied every year
- Every book is shelf-ready — barcoded and jacketed before it arrives
- Titles hand-picked to engage primary readers
- Saves your staff hours of processing time

Save over £500 every year — bought separately, these three elements cost significantly more
